12.45 Lunch

1.30 Shaken and stirred!

What does the new OFSTED framework mean for language teachers? This session will demonstrate an array of exciting themes, techniques and activities for motivating pupils, raising attainment in all four language skills and how to make controlled assessments engaging and inspiring. Secret Agents, Whodunnit Mysteries, Media and Celebrities, Extreme Sports and Historical Icons such as Che Guavera and Anne Frank.

3.00 Challenges of the new Ofsted Framework for MFL

This session looks at the new Ofsted Framework and give you an insight into the major issues for Languages Departments, as well as how to move a 'Satisfactory' teacher to 'Good' and 'Good' teacher to 'Outstanding'. Find out what Ofsted inspectors currently prioritise and how these issues can be addressed by tweaking Schemes of Work and questioning styles.

3.45 Close

Juliet Park is Director MFL at Yewlands school and regular speaker and trainer for regional and national events with organisations such as ALL, Network for Languages and the SSAT where she has worked as a Lead Practitioner for the last 4 years. She regularly runs courses on KS3, GCSE and A level and is currently working with OCR and AQA to redevelop the GCSE qualification.

Wendy Adeniji is Assistant Principal at Kings Science Academy and she regularly delivers workshops to improve teaching and learning MFL in schools and Local Authorities. She has authored Spanish teaching materials for Heinemann and she was Regional Support Advisor to disseminate the New MFL Curriculum.
